MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

SUBJECT: Reaction of Syngman Rhee to Truce Talks

Mr. Dulles has asked that the following message be furnished for your information. [REDACTED]

25X1
25X1

"1. [REDACTED] angry President Rhee said if truce without unification of Korea is effected according to State Department plans, he will order ROK Army to march alone to Yalu. [REDACTED] Rhee passed around copies of cables from American friends urging him to fight State Department policies.

25X1

"2. On 21 April Rhee called meeting all available Army generals including brigadiers and urged them draw plans for ROK Army to carry on war alone. Staff Chief Paek Sun-Yop asked Rhee wait until February 1954 when ROK Army would have 22 Divisions, in view of present manpower shortage and fact that ROK Army incapable covering 155-mile front alone. Rhee retorted no one knew when United States would withdraw. Consequently ROK Army must push while United States artillery support still available, and regardless what Washington thinks or does ROK Army should start offensive so United States Army would have no choice except fire artillery support."

Dear General Donovan:

Thank you very much for your courtesy in forwarding the letter from [redacted]

I am very appreciative of your interest and aid in this matter. [redacted] has been asked to contact us.

I am wondering if you ever get down to Washington these days. I realize you are very busy, but I would appreciate a few minutes of your time at your convenience. No one realizes more than I do the implications of the task that has been handed me, and I feel that should you be able to give me a few minutes it would give me a boost in the right direction. Your "know how" in these matters would, I feel, keep me from making many obvious mistakes and assist me in avoiding some of the pitfalls that would be evident to you.

With kindest personal regards.

Very sincerely yours,

HOYT S. VANDENBERG
